THE COMPANY APPEALS.

Martin, the Non-Union Employee of the Street Railway Company

RELEASED FROM JAIL YESTERDAY.

Mayor Mahood and the Sergeant of Benwood both go to Washington and Let the Town Take Care of Itself—No Trouble on the Line Yesterday, except a few Bricks Thrown and Trifles like That—Talk about Arbitration.

The street cars were run as usual yesterday, and the patronage picked up decidedly. It was a matter of general comment that the number of passengers far exceeded those seen on any previous day. The strikers had also an increased number of buses, wagons and hacks in the service and they continued to do good business.

About the most interesting development yesterday was the appealing of the case of Martin, the motorman, sent to jail by Mayor Mahood, of Benwood, for carrying a concealed weapon. Mr. B. S. Allison, of the company's counsel, went down to Benwood yesterday to look into the case. He found that Mayor Mahood and the sergeant of Benwood had both gone to Washington City, and the town was getting along about as well in their absence as when they were at home. After some skirmishing, he found Squire Riddle, who agreed to take an appeal bond and send the case up. The bond was quickly given, and Martin released.

Martin's case has not yet been fully understood. It deserves to go down in local history. He was attacked while running a car. Missiles of all sorts were thrown at him. His own story at the hearing was that one youth approached close to him and threw at him. He pulled his line pliers partly out of his pocket, and the mob thought he had a revolver, and fled.

The boys swore he had a revolver, and that they saw it. On this evidence Mayor Mahood sent Martin to jail for thirty days. The young man who made the complaint was at the time he alleged the revolver was shown committing an act which the law makes punishable with two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, but Mayor Mahood ignored that fact.

The fact that Martin denies that he had a revolver is a minor consideration. The law especially provides that a peaceable citizen who has reason to believe and does believe that he is in danger of DEATH OR GREAT BODILY HARM may carry a weapon for his own protection. Martin had reason to believe this, and did believe it, and everybody else knows it. In addition to this, the penalty assessed was unusually severe. The company did not know that Martin was sent to jail until they saw the fact stated in the newspapers.

Yesterday morning the first car over the line had a brick thrown through a window in the Eighth ward, and there was a little yelling at operators and conductors through the day. A piece of a railroad rail was placed on the track, also, at Ford's crossing early in the morning in such a way as to be scarcely visible, and yet to probably throw the car off the track. This was discovered in the nick of time by a watchman, and taken away.

Outside of similar things to these no interference with the running of the cars was learned of. Last evening all seemed to be quiet.

THE UNION WILLING TO ARBITRATE. City Clerk Thoner yesterday received the following communication, which explains itself:

WHEELING, W. VA., March 2, '93.

Thomas F. Thoner, City Clerk.

DEAR SIR:—Your communication of March 1, with enclosed resolution adopted by the Council of our city February 23 and 28, 1893, expressing the sense of that body as to the best means of ending the present unfortunate controversy between the electric railway company and its employees—the electrical railway company to select one member, the electrical railway employees' union to select another member and these two to choose a third member, their decision to be binding on both parties—is at hand. Acting for the legislative committee of the trades assembly and in behalf of the employees' union, I will say we are ready and willing to comply with the provisions of the resolution.

Believing that if this is accepted in the proper spirit all matters in controversy can be arranged, and the entity of our organization maintained.

I remain, very respectfully,
ROMAN DOBLER,
for Legislative Committee.

An Idea of Benwood Justice.

Relative Independent.

B. T. Martin, the motorman in charge of an electric car that was attacked in Benwood the other day, and who took out his revolver and warned the crowd to keep away from the car and not to molest either him or the car and thus managed to escape punishment, was charged with carrying concealed weapons before the mayor of Benwood and that official fined him $25 and gave him thirty days in jail. The case of the motorman who was badly beaten has not yet come up. He'll probably get six months if the chain of evidence can be connected sufficiently to make him the aggressor by provoking a row by reason of his being a motorman.

That would be something frightful. To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir—What would the street car strikers think if business men, sympathizers with the company; men who want to ride on the cars, but are prevented by danger from the lawless mobs—if they would get out in the street and stone the union buses and hacks? Wouldn't that be simply awful?

CITIZEN.

Wheeling March, 2.

How It Is "Booming" Wheeling.

There was the usual riot yesterday at Wheeling. The street car strike is not only a disgrace to Wheeling but to the state. Is there any law or authority in Ohio county? It does not look so at this distance. The men whose duty it is to suppress these riots and punish these rioters seem to be afraid to do their duty. The reason is obvious, but it is a cowardly and contemptible reason.

BROCK DEFEATS RICHARDS

In the Fight for Chairmanship of the Railroad Committee.

Four Council committees met last night at the city building for the purpose of electing chairmen. No other business was transacted.

The most important committee of the lot, railroads, elected Allen Brock, Democrat, as chairman, defeating Mr. Richards after a spirited contest. All the members of the committee, eight in number, Messrs. Frew, Richards, Brock, Grimm, Menkemiller, Caldwell, Hamilton and Zulauf were on hand. Three ballots were taken for the chairmanship. The first and second ballots resulted in ties, 4-4. On the third ballot, Zulauf, Republican, changed and voted for Brock, thus deciding the contest in the latter's favor.

The committee on markets elected Mr. C. W. Kreiter chairman. This gentleman served as chairman of last council's market committee, and secured re-election merely on account of his good record.

The ordinance committee made a good selection, electing Mr. Dobbins chairman. There was no contest.

The committee on elections elected Mr. Kenny, of the second branch, chairman without a contest.

All the committee meetings were short, nothing being done except organization.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the Honorable Mayor and Council of Wheeling.

Your joint committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the late A. J. Sweeney, ex-mayor of the City of Wheeling, recommend the adoption of the following:

WHEREAS, it has pleased an Allwise Providence to call from our midst our esteemed and honored fellow citizen, A. J. Sweeney, late mayor of the city. The community at large feel its loss, deeply sympathize with his family and friends in their sad bereavement. Mr. Sweeney occupied many places of honor and trust, representing his country as Commissioner to the Vienna Exposition and served his native city many terms as mayor, and in all he served the public faithfully with honor to himself and satisfaction to every one.

Resolved, That by the death of Mr. Sweeney the city has lost one of its most honored citizens who was warm hearted, energetic and public spirited. Who in life was strong in manhood, upright and faithful in all things, affectionate and dutiful as a husband, father and friend, and we desire to offer this tribute of our sincere respect for and our appreciation of the character of the deceased. We deplore the loss to his family and the community, and join in sympathy with the bereaved.

Resolved, That this tribute to the worth and memory of him who has gone from us be spread upon the records of this Council; that the city clerk do furnish a copy hereof to the family of the deceased and that it be published in the city papers.

Resolved, That this Council and the city officials, as a further mark of respect do attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, In further respect to the dead that this Council do now adjourn.

P. F. FARRELL,
FRANK GRUSE,
JOHN J. KENNEY,
EDWARD ROBERTSON,
P. B. DOBBINS,
B. F. CALDWELL, Mayor.
